

The most exhaustive information source on the EU

The EuroGuide, the oldest bilingual English-French reference book on the EU, is divided in two parts:

- Part I: how it works – Structure, powers, operation and activities of EU institutions, bodies and agencies.
- Part II: who does what (directory) – The organisational charts with names and details of persons in charge.

It also includes:

- various kind of practical information: holidays in the institutions and bodies of the EU, useful addresses...
- a chapter is dedicated to association and cooperation with third countries, particularly with the ACP States, another to European studies, as well as to diplomatic missions accredited to the EU;
- an index with some 13,000 names, an index of acronyms, etc.

Table of contents

Practical information

(information sources, official publications, delegations in third countries, map of the Union and its Member States, useful websites...)

Institutions, bodies and agencies of the European Union

General introduction (functioning, activities...)

Institutions

European Parliament

European Council

Council of the European Union, including permanent representations of the Member States [Coreper]

European Commission

European External Action Service, including representatives to the Political and Security Committee and to the Military Committee

Court of Justice of the European Union

European Court of Auditors

European Ombudsman

European Data Protection Supervisor

Financial bodies

European Central Bank (ECB)

European Investment Bank (EIB)

European Investment Fund (EIF)

Advisory bodies

European Economic and Social Committee (EESC)

Committee of the Regions (CoR)

Interinstitutional bodies

Office for Official Publications (OP)

European Personnel Selection Office (EPSO)

European Administrative School (EAS)

Decentralized bodies

Agencies and other specialized bodies of the EU

Association and cooperation with third countries

(list and content of the agreements, EEA, COST, ACP, CDE, CTA...)

Diplomatic missions accredited to the EU

– Liaison offices of international organizations

European studies

(European schools, European University Institute, European integration in university studies)

Annexes

(Europe step by step, acronyms and abbreviations, index of names)